Frequently Asked Questions

How do I know if I passed and how do I receive my certificate?

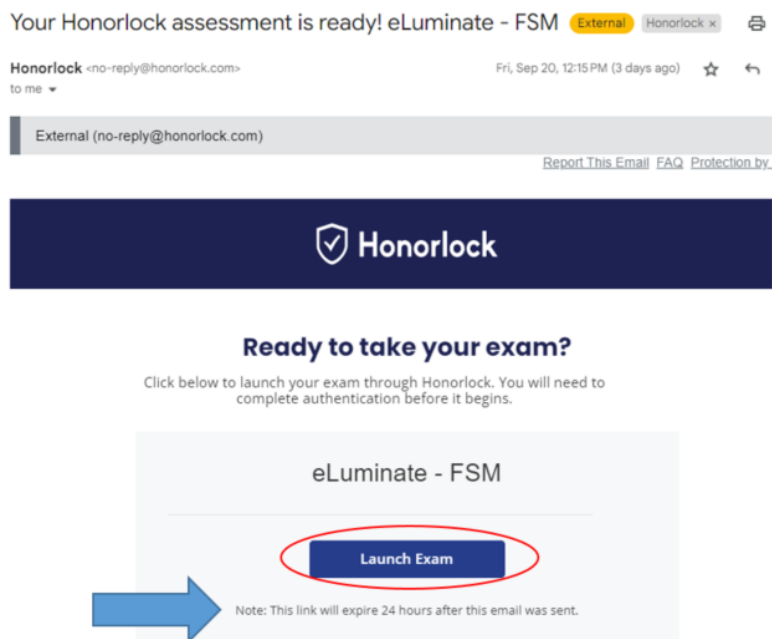

If you receive a passing score on your exam, your passing status and certificate will be sent to the email address associated with your profile. This will be sent by Accredible, our third party certificate provider.

What is a proctor and why do I need one?

A proctor is a third-party professional who monitors students while they take an exam. Academic institutions hire these professionals to ensure the professional overseeing the test-taking process is unbiased and has no motivation to allow the students to use outside resources to pass the exam.

How do I take my exam with a proctor?

After you complete the exam course in eLuminate you will receive the email below to the email address associated with your profile.

Click on Launch Exam when you are ready to take the exam.

After you click on the link you will be sent to Honorlock, our exam proctor.

Frequently Asked Questions

Select Request Name Change

Enter the name you want displayed in both fields and click request

A screenshot of the 'Request Name Change' form. The form has two input fields: 'New name on the credential' and 'Confirm new name'. The first field contains the text 'Natasha Footland'. Below the fields are two buttons: 'Cancel' and 'Request'. A red circle highlights the 'Request' button.

Then a message will be sent to eLuminate to approve the request. Once approved you will receive an email with your updated credential.

What Happens Next

You've requested a major change:

If the name change you've requested is substantially different from the name that currently appears on your certificate, your request will be sent to your issuer (eLuminate) for them to approve or deny your request.

You've requested a minor change:

If the name change you've requested is to fix a small typo and your issuer has given us permission to approve small changes, the system will automatically correct and update your certificate.
